20 September 2012*Brief: Supply of Promotional Gifts for Transnet Freight Rail's Fleet Management Department's Vehicle Safety Awareness Campaign*Background

Transnet Freight Rail (TFR) is the largest operating division of Transnet Limited, a State Owned Enterprise of the South African government.

Employing approximately 24 000 dedicated employees and operating more than 20 800 kilometres route of track of which 1 500 route kilometres is laid across the harsh terrain of South Africa, make up our acclaimed heavy haul export lines.

This network, running an average of 800 trains per day, connects the ports and hinterland of South Africa as well as the rail networks of the sub-Saharan region, representing 80% of Africa's rail infrastructure.

The Fleet Management Department (FMD) forms part of TFR. The number of Vehicle incidents reported over past few months has increased. FMD will launch a Vehicle Safety Awareness Campaign. The following promotional items will be distributed to Service Drivers and Engineer Technicians nationally in an attempt to foster awareness.

Transnet Freight Rail would like to invite quotations for the following corporate gifts to be supplied.
